You can help Africa in Crises

Africa Inland Mission is partnering with Global Development Group in project J1076N, African Crises Relief.

Gifts are tax-deductible in Australia. (See details below).

This project will help provide emergency aid and relief through financial aid for food, and essential supplies in the event of a crisis. This can include natural disasters, pandemics or other emergency situations. This aid will be provided in African countries and other locations where Africa Inland Mission is operating.

Primary activities include:

- Providing funds through AIM workers or trusted partners.
- Often giving first-response aid before other agencies arrive.
- Providing assistance in a prolonged disaster or famine from drought and other causes. Often Work-for-Food programs are used to provide assistance with honour.
- Providing assistance to people regardless of race or creed.

You can help save Africans in a time of crises by donating to this project.

Please give as follows:

Direct Deposit: BSB 064118 A/C 10200094 (GDG) Email details* to info@globaldevelopment.org.au

Cheque: Payable to Global Development Group, Include a note with donation details* and post to: PO Box 651, Rochedale South QLD 4123. *Donation Details: date, amount, project no. (J1076N), name & email/ address.

Thank you for caring!
