

AFRICA INLAND MISSION SHORT-TERM OPPORTUNITY

TIMO Quest // 2021

The Team

Serve for one month among one of Africa's least-reached people groups, ministering alongside one of AIM's two-year outreach teams.

This shortened version of AIM's two-three year TIMO (Training In Ministry Outreach) program is both an impactful experience in and of itself and for those already considering TIMO or another longer-term ministry.

What will I do?

- Live the truth of the gospel message in word and action
- Prioritize language learning and relationship building
- Experience life in a cross-cultural context while living simply
- Spend several days living with a national family
- Participate in team-day curriculum discussions on missional topics
- Be mentored by a missionary and be accountable to a larger team

Who can serve?

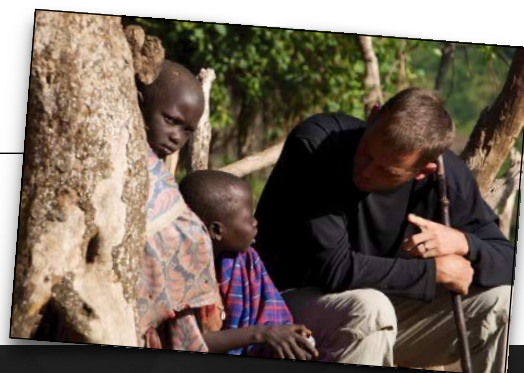

TIMO Quest is for singles and married couples with no children. This year's team in Torit is looking for 3 single women and 1 single man.

How much support will I raise?

About $6000 to $8000 CAN
(TBA in February)

"TIMO Quest was an amazing opportunity. A privilege!"

Kyle Reynolds of Australia served on the Alagwa TIMO Quest Team
